Frame your layout with strips of patterned paper. This allows you to showcase a main pattern that ties everything together without overwhelming the page, leaving room for larger photos or bold statement pieces like stars.

Incorporate QR code videos for an interactive touch, using subtle arrows to guide the eye toward them.

Accessories: Stars (2, 4)

Kiwi Club Sets: Cinema (1, 5, 6, 7)

Photos: Left: (4: 3 x 3, 1: 4 x 6), Right (1: 4 x 6, 4: 3 x 3)

When working with bright, energetic papers like this month's kit, consider balancing them with more subdued photos—such as black and white. Mary added a black-and-white photo strip along the bottom of her page, inspired by the classic Mickey photo booth strips.

For a clean, minimalist look, trace the stars onto your background paper using the stencil feature as a guide. Add personality and depth with accents like enamel dots or rhinestones around the edges— or on a paper cutout of the star itself. This simple technique frames your photos beautifully without overpowering the page.

Mix and match die-cut cards with photos inside the film strip for a unique storytelling effect that guides the eye. Use pop-up adhesive to add dimension and create a fun 3D look.

Give your popcorn a more interactive look by using yellow crepe paper for a textured, fluffy effect, then scatter a few extra pieces to create a sense of movement.

By Linda Hanson (design team)

Play with texture and contrast by adding glitter paper to your cutouts, lining edges with rickrack ribbon for definition, or using a white pen on black paper. These touches help embellishments stand out while keeping the eye engaged.

Incorporate title cards into your design using the Cinema 3 and 6 templates—the retro sign and the Mickey head—for a seamless and playful touch.

Accessories: Everyday Adventures (7, 8), Stars (1, 2, 4)
Kiwi Club Sets: Cinema (3, 5, 6, 7)
Photos: Left: (4: 3 x 3, 1: 4 x 6, 1: 3 x 4) Right: (2: 3 x 4)

Use the Cinema 6 template to showcase a photo with a window-like effect, drawing focus to your image while adding depth and a playful, dimensional touch to your page.

The title cards were built to fit in certain templates, with the classic mickey graphic creating their own story when combined with the film strip.

Take advantage of this and incorporate it into your design, adding to the aesthetic of your page and helping to create section on your layout depending on the placement.

Need the perfect-colored enamel dot? Make your own! Punch out dots from the kit's paper and add glossy accents to create custom enamel dots that perfectly match your design.

Right: (2: 4 x 6, 2: 3 x 4, 1: 4 x 4, 2: 2 x 2)

Use Cinema 6 to frame a photo, and if you prefer a simpler look, trim off the Mickey ears.

For a minimalist touch, cut out the center of a star and place an enamel dot inside for extra layering and interest. Reuse the cutout center with the same technique for added variety.

Let your paper designs do the work! Depending on orientation, patterned papers can elevate your layout—like turning the ticket pattern from this month's kit into a unique strip or using the popcorn print as a preset background for your cinema 2 template.

By Shiloh Jorgensen (Kiwi Lane Co-Founder)

Use the Cinema 7 template to frame in larger photos while also layering in smaller, trimmed 2x2 photos for added storytelling and detail.

Accessories: Everyday Adventures (1, 2, 4, 5), Stars (1, 3)

By Jody Vasquez (design team)

Use the film strip in the new Cinema set as a simple border to add movement and definition while showcasing the paper's beautiful patterns and framing photos. Layer it multiple times with different patterned papers for extra energy and dimension, helping it pop off the page.

Use the arrow from Everyday Adventures to highlight titles on your page—either with title cards or by creating your own using letters from your stash.

Accessories: Everyday Adventures (3, 6, 7, 8) Stars (1, 2), Hey Ya'll (2), Tiny Celebrate (3)

Photos: Left: (2: 3 x 3, 2: 3 x 4), Right: (2: 3 x 3, 2: 3 x 4)

Back the film strip with vellum to let the background paper peek through. This technique adds an authentic, layered look while subtly softening the colors and patterns beneath, making your photos and embellishments stand out even more.

Use the stars not only for photos or embellishments but also as a platform for titles or journaling. Jennifer framed her photo collage with two stars, creating a balanced, uniform look while using the space for journaling and a title on sticker paper.

Create balance on the page by arranging matching yet varied clusters of embellishments. Use the same templates in different orientations or papers, keeping consistent colors in the cluster if not in different templates, and subtly incorporate title cards for a cohesive, dynamic look.

Accessories: Everyday Adventures (5) Stars (3, 4)

Easily transform the popcorn template into a cupcake by shortening it and adding sprinkles and a candle for a fun, creative twist.

Use the Cinema 3 template as a platform for your title, integrating it seamlessly into your page. Experiment with its orientation to create visual interest and provide space for brief journaling.

Follow the stencil suggestion on the Cinema 5 template and cut out the center of the star. Instead of layering it, place the cutout elsewhere on the page and leave the center empty to add variety and visual interest.
